AN OUTSIDE ESTIMATE.

The Lyon County Times says: There seems to be a great deal of sympathy over the Anti-Chinese movement, and bad blood is being created between old friends.

The movement was in the first place conducted in an entirely unwise manner, and the sole idea seemed to be to get rid of the Chinamen. This was good, and nearly everybody encouraged the move; but lately, since the Democrats in the League have made a political proposition out of it the whole business of fighting the Chinese seems to have stopped and the fight is now against the Republican party. The people all over the State, who are ready in sympathy with the movement, are beginning to look with doubt upon the success of the league, which a month or more ago everybody was exultant with the success that had been made. The movement has worked as all such moves do, when Democratic bosses get hold of the matter. They invariably go in for greed of gain, and when once they get a little start they dive in on the rule or ruin policy, and generally it proves the latter. Let no one understand that the Times is not as thoroughly anti-Chinese as it always has been, but as to giving up to Democratic rule when Republicans are the only ones who have helped the cause, is out of the question. The Dayton anti-Chinese league is very quiet just now for the reason that it does not wish to get into a similar squabble.

A Nevada Joseph.

Joseph Marzen, a rancher who lives at Winnemucca, is paraded by the San Francisco Examiner as a "Nevada Joseph." It appears that his wife was anxious to secure a divorce, and accordingly set women to work to induce him to forget his marriage vows. He was induced into all sorts of bad company, surrounded by wily and entrancing women, and in spite of all the seductive arts of the sirens, he never violated any of the proprieties, and the detectives placed on his track were unable to make any adverse report.

This simply shows what a glorious soil and climate we have up here. It is not surprising that a paper published in the modern Sodom is astonished at such rare chastity as shown by Marzen, but such icy virtue among Nevada ranchmen is no new thing up here. The inhabitants of this State are wiser than their generation, and a few bottles of Roderer and a pretty woman or two seldom catches anybody out from this section. What an extra bottle and another woman might accomplish is another question.

—There is a rising prima donna in the West, according to a newspaper writer in Los Angeles. He writes: "There is a woman here who is selling small fruit and vegetables to educate herself in music. She has been, she says, 'starved for music all her life,' but now, at 40 years of age, in spite of poverty and discouragement, she is cultivating her voice, which is really a fine one. An old and pitiful sight was this woman, with her broad sun hat and linen duster, at the piano the other day, playing and singing for a wealthy invalid, while her vegetable wagon stood waiting at the door."

—Maurice B. Flinn, the new "boss" of New York city, has taken full advantage of his opportunities. He is only thirty-eight years old, and was born in this country of emigrant Irish parents. He was a farm boy, but left work there for the city, and after several unsuccessful ventures became connected with a concern which had city contracts. He also got into Democratic politics, and it is said that he is worth today about $3,000,000.

—Mr. William Nye, the Western philosopher and economist, has departed from established precedent in the matter of autograph writing. Someone wrote to him for his autograph, and received in reply the following: "Dear sir: In the absence of my amanuensis will you kindly excuse me if I write my autograph myself? Yours, Bill Nye."

—After Logan came out of the mines he said that from this on he should hold that a silver dollar was worth one hundred cents.
